Description:

Review "Sean Barrett's masterful performance gives an authentic flavor to the biblical story of Herod, King of Judea; Zachariah and his wife, Elisheba; Onias the tutor; the angel Gabriel; and Mary and Joseph. Barrett's depiction of Herod's insanity is captivating. His depiction of Gabriel's angelic voice, complete with appropriate sound effects, is stunning when Gabriel delivers his prophesy to Zachariah: He and Elisheba, long past child-bearing age, will give birth to a son. Barrett deftly captures Zachariah's disbelief. When Gabriel tells Mary she has been chosen to carry the Messiah, Barrett's beguiling performance equips listeners to experience her joy, wonder, fear, and even her lingering questions. Outstanding sound effects and a commanding performance of this historical fiction make this an unforgettable production."

From the Inside Flap Betrayal and suspicion are the coin of the realm as King Herod plunges deeper into madness. Where is the promised liberator who will set the world right?

No one is secure in Judea. Plots are hatched, poisonings contrived, and the least innuendo can bring torture or execution. As the people long for the true heir of King David to take the throne, Herod determines to hold on to his kingdom . . . no matter the price.

As young Mary of Nazareth tends a cow in her parents' barn, she receives an unusual visitor. What he tells her will change everything about her life . . . and impact all those in Judea and beyond—for eternity! Yet will Yosef, her betrothed, believe her? Or will she lose the one she loves?

Onias the Tutor puzzles over the ancient prophecies in secret. If anyone discovers what he knows, not only he, but his beloved wife and child, will be in imminent peril.

Now signs are appearing in the heavens. But what do they mean? --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.
